At the heart of the story is Sarah, a young woman who has just moved to town and is looking for a new start. She finds solace in the local coffee shop, where she meets a cast of characters who quickly become her friends. But as she gets to know them better, she realizes that everyone has their own secrets and hidden agendas.

There's Jake, the handsome barista who seems to have a thing for Sarah. But he's also hiding a dark past that could put them both in danger. And then there's Emily, the kind-hearted waitress who is struggling to keep her family afloat. But she's also dealing with a controlling ex-husband who won't let her go.

As the relationships between these characters become more complicated, so too do the secrets they keep. And when one of them is murdered, it's up to Sarah to uncover the truth and bring the killer to justice.

Complications Over Coffee Up In Flames is a fast-paced, suspenseful thriller that will keep you guessing until the very end. It's a story about the dark side of human nature, and the lengths people will go to protect their secrets.
