إلى مكتوب على الجبين لازم عشوقه العين

ما يكتب على الجبين لازم يشوفه العين

What is written on the forehead, the eye must see

What must be, must be

إلى ياكل على ضرسه يتفح نفسه

ما ياكل على ضرسه يتفح نفسه

He who chews with his own teeth benefits himself

God helps those who help themselves

A Tapestry of Wisdom

Within the pages of 'And More Arab Proverbs', readers will encounter a diverse range of proverbs that cover every aspect of life, from love and friendship to justice and honor.

- On Wisdom and Knowledge: "The wise man builds his house on a rock, while the fool builds his on the sand."
This proverb emphasizes the importance of sound judgment and foresight in the face of life's uncertainties.
- On Love and Friendship: "A true friend is like a mirror: it shows you your flaws without breaking you."

This saying highlights the power of true friendship in providing honest feedback and support.

- On Justice and Honor: "Injustice is like a snake: it may not bite you today, but it will eventually."

This proverb warns against the consequences of unchecked injustice and the importance of standing up for what is right.

Glimpses into Arab Culture

Beyond their practical wisdom, Arab proverbs also offer a unique window into the cultural values and beliefs of the Arab world.

- Hospitality: "The guest is the gift of God."
This proverb reflects the deep-rooted tradition of hospitality in Arab culture, where guests are welcomed with open arms.
- Courage: "The brave man is not the one who is not afraid, but the one who is afraid and still fights."

This saying celebrates the virtue of courage and highlights the importance of perseverance in the face of adversity.

- Patience: "Patience is the key to success."

This proverb emphasizes the value of patience and perseverance in achieving one's goals.
