

Inside Trump's Tower: An Insider's Account of 18 Years Working with the Former President

In the annals of American history, the name Donald Trump will forever be etched as a polarizing figure. His presidency was a tumultuous affair, marked by both fervent support and vehement opposition. Behind the public persona, however, exists a more complex and nuanced individual. In "What My Eighteen Years of Working with Donald Trump Reveals About Him," former Trump Organization executive Barbara Res shares her firsthand account of the man she observed from a unique vantage point.

The Apprentice Years

Res' journey with Trump began in 2003 when she joined The Apprentice, the reality television show that catapulted Trump to mainstream fame. As a producer, she had an intimate glimpse into Trump's business acumen and leadership style. In her book, she reveals the intricate strategies Trump employed to cultivate his image and negotiate deals.

The Trump Organization

After The Apprentice, Res moved into a senior executive role at the Trump Organization, overseeing major real estate projects and managing high-profile ventures. Through her experiences, she witnessed Trump's unwavering determination and unwavering belief in his abilities. Res provides detailed insights into Trump's negotiating tactics, financial acumen, and marketing prowess.

The Presidency

In 2016, Trump made the improbable leap from reality TV star to the highest office in the land. As the President of the United States, Trump continued to exhibit the same traits that Res had observed during her years at the Trump Organization. However, the stakes were now much higher. Res offers a unique perspective on Trump's decision-making process, his interactions with foreign leaders, and his efforts to reshape American policy.

The Man Behind the Mask

Beyond the public persona, Res delves into the personal side of Donald Trump. She examines his relationship with his family, his work ethic, and his motivations. Through anecdotes and observations, she unveils the complexities of Trump's character, revealing a man driven by a relentless pursuit of success and a deep-seated belief in his own abilities.

Lessons Learned and Legacy

In the final chapters of her book, Res reflects on the lessons she learned from working with Donald Trump. She discusses the importance of resilience, adaptability, and the ability to think strategically. Res also examines Trump's lasting legacy, both domestically and internationally.
