As the snow falls softly on Stoneybrook, Connecticut, Karen is thrilled to be invited on a festive sleigh ride by her friends. Together with Claudia, Stacey, Dawn, Mallory, and Jessi, she bundles up in warm clothes and sets off on a magical journey through the snow-covered countryside.

Along the way, they encounter mischievous elves, friendly reindeer, and a jolly Santa Claus. Karen's little sister, Hannie, is especially delighted by the twinkling lights and festive decorations that adorn the sleigh.

As the sun begins to set, casting a warm glow over the landscape, the Baby-Sitters Club finds themselves at a cozy cabin in the woods. Inside, they warm up by the fire, sip hot chocolate, and share stories. Karen is filled with a sense of joy and contentment as she spends time with her friends and family.

But the adventure doesn't end there. As the night falls, Karen and her friends are surprised by a special visitor: Santa Claus himself! Santa brings gifts for all the children, spreading joy and happiness throughout the cabin.

Karen Sleigh Ride Baby Sitters Little Sister 92 is a heartwarming and festive tale that captures the true spirit of Christmas. With its relatable characters, engaging plot, and beautiful illustrations, this novel is sure to become a holiday classic for young readers.
