Llama Llama and the Bully Goat is a heartwarming story about a little llama who stands up to a bully. This book is perfect for teaching children about bullying, empathy, and courage.

Llama Llama is a kind and gentle llama who loves to play with his friends. But one day, a big bully goat named Gruff comes to the playground and starts picking on Llama Llama.

Gruff calls Llama Llama names, pushes him around, and even steals his toys. Llama Llama is scared and doesn't know what to do.

But then, Llama Llama remembers something his mother told him: "If someone is bullying you, you need to stand up for yourself." So Llama Llama takes a deep breath and tells Gruff to stop.

Gruff is surprised that Llama Llama is standing up to him. He tries to scare Llama Llama again, but Llama Llama doesn't back down.

Finally, Gruff gives up and walks away. Llama Llama is so proud of himself for standing up to the bully. He knows that he can't always stop bullies from being mean, but he can choose to not be bullied.
