The vineyard's origins can be traced back to a serendipitous meeting between two passionate individuals: Anne and Doug Fabboli. United by their love for each other and for the art of winemaking, they embarked on a journey to create a vineyard that would reflect their shared values of excellence, sustainability, and a deep appreciation for the land.

A Vineyard Born of Love

The name "Love Child" is a poignant tribute to the couple's enduring love and the belief that their vineyard was destined to be something truly special. With meticulous care and attention to detail, they selected a prime location in the heart of Virginia's Monticello viticultural area, known for its ideal climate and diverse soils.

Over the years, Love Child Virginia Vineyards has grown from a modest operation to a thriving enterprise that has garnered critical acclaim for its exceptional wines. The Fabboli's unwavering commitment to sustainable farming practices and their dedication to preserving the unique terroir of their vineyard have resulted in a portfolio of wines that are both complex and elegant.

Exploring the Vineyards

A visit to Love Child Virginia Vineyards is an immersive experience that invites visitors to connect with the land, the vines, and the passionate people behind the wines. Guided tours led by knowledgeable staff provide an in-depth look into the vineyard's history, winemaking techniques, and the meticulous care that goes into each bottle.

As you wander through the vineyards, admire the meticulously tended vines that produce the grapes for Love Child's renowned wines. Learn about the different grape varieties grown on the estate, each contributing its unique character to the final blend.
