From the eerie landscapes of Japan to the ancient ruins of Greece, from the remote villages of India to the bustling streets of New York City, these stories transcend geographical boundaries, showcasing the universality of fear and the human fascination with the unknown.

Cultural Diversity and Eerie Enchantments

'More Bones' celebrates the rich tapestry of human imagination, delving into the diverse cultures that have shaped these tales. Each story is steeped in the unique customs, beliefs, and superstitions of its region, offering readers a glimpse into the dark recesses of the human psyche.

In a remote Japanese village, a young woman is haunted by a vengeful spirit seeking retribution for a long-forgotten wrong. In the windswept highlands of Scotland, a solitary traveler encounters a mysterious piper whose music lures him to a sinister fate. And amidst the bustling crowds of Mumbai, a young couple finds themselves at the mercy of a malevolent entity that preys on their deepest fears.

Masters of the Macabre

Hayes has assembled a stellar group of authors from around the world to contribute to 'More Bones', each bringing their unique voice and perspective to the genre. Among them are:

- Ramsey Campbell, a British horror maestro whose tales have haunted readers for decades
- Harlan Ellison, the legendary American science fiction and fantasy writer known for his thought-provoking and unsettling stories
- Gemma Files, a Canadian author whose chilling tales often explore the boundaries of the human mind
- Simon Kurt Unsworth, a British writer whose haunting and atmospheric stories have won critical acclaim
- Laird Barron, an American author whose dark and disturbing tales have earned him a cult following

Together, these masters of the macabre have crafted a collection that will leave readers breathless, their hearts pounding with fear and anticipation.

Literary Excellence and Bone-Chilling Entertainment

'More Bones' is not merely a collection of scary stories; it is a literary achievement that showcases the power of storytelling to transport readers to worlds unknown and make the hairs on their necks stand on end.
