A Journey of Resilience and Discovery

Join author and adventurer Matt Meissner as he embarks on an extraordinary journey along the legendary Alaska Highway and Dempster Highway. From the vibrant cities of Whitehorse and Dawson City to the desolate Arctic Circle and the rugged Tombstone Territorial Park, Meissner's account paints a vivid tapestry of the Yukon's untamed beauty.

Unveiling the Yukon's Hidden Wonders

As Meissner navigates treacherous trails, encounters diverse wildlife, and immerses himself in the vibrant culture of the North, he unravels the hidden wonders of the Yukon. He captures the majestic Northern Lights dancing across the starlit sky, the ethereal beauty of the tundra, and the awe-inspiring sight of glaciers crashing into the sea.

A Test of Physical and Mental Endurance

Beyond the breathtaking landscapes, 'Running North Yukon Adventure' is a testament to human resilience and determination. Meissner's journey is one of physical and mental endurance, as he pushes his limits while navigating challenging terrain, enduring extreme weather conditions, and facing solitude and introspection.

A Call to Adventure

Meissner's captivating storytelling and stunning photography inspire a longing for adventure and a deep appreciation for the power of the human spirit. 'Running North Yukon Adventure' is a call to embrace the unknown, to seek out new challenges, and to experience the transformative power of wilderness.
