About the Author

W.E.B. Du Bois was born in Great Barrington, Massachusetts, in 1868. He was the son of former slaves, and he grew up in a poor but loving home. Du Bois was a brilliant student, and he graduated from Harvard University in 1890. He went on to earn a doctorate from the University of Berlin in 1895.

Du Bois was a prolific writer and scholar. He published over 20 books and hundreds of articles. His work focused on the history, culture, and politics of African-Americans. He was also a leading activist in the fight for civil rights.

Du Bois was a controversial figure during his lifetime. He was often criticized for his radical views, but he never wavered in his commitment to fighting for justice. He died in Accra, Ghana, in 1963.
